CONGRATULATIONS, PROF LOH!

Congratulations to Professor Loh Teck Peng on receiving the Yoshida Prize from the International Organic Chemistry Foundation (IOCF)!

The Yoshida Prize was instituted by IOCF in 2015 to honour researchers for achievements in contributing to international academic development in the field of organic chemistry. (Source)

INNOVA JUNIOR COLLEGE VISITS SPMS

On 7 September, we hosted a group of students from Innova Junior College. They were warmly welcomed by the Associate Chair (Students) Assoc Prof Chew Lock Yue. Asst Prof Soo Han Sen later showed them around the school and brought them to the chemistry teaching lab where they observed a class in progress.

SPMS ‘NERO’ DANCE PARTY 2017

In SPMS, it’s not all work and no play. We study hard and also party hard. Freshmen and seniors got together on 23 August to have a night of unbridled fun at the SPMS “Nero” Dance Night. The MAS Atrium was transformed into a party floor with DJ on set, and the quintessential coloured strobe lights and fog effect.
